The Question Of Economy

is a mighty important one with almost all serious minded and thoughtful people. But in the case of the mother with growing boys to clothe and educate, it strikes home with particular force.

That mother who attempts to fight the increased cost of living and practice economy by getting cheaper grades of boys' clothes, is making a mistake. That isn't economy at all; it's extravagance.

There is nothing you have to buy that will prove so expensive in the end as inferior boys' clothing.

On the other hand, there is no way to better practice true economy than to pay a fair price and get reliable, durable, guaranteed Northcott-Tate-Hagy Co. Clothes for your boy.

Boys' Clothes made to sell at a lower price than we sell them cannot be made to give long service. They will fall down in tailoring, in fabrics and in style after very little wear.

Northcott-Tate-Hagy Co. Boys' Clothes for as little as $3.50 and up to $18.00.

We prepay Parcel Post on Mail Orders.

TO ROAD CONTESTANTS.

Those persons who have decided to enter the road contest should send their names and the two miles selected. You may wait till some one gets the two miles you want. Remember that this is not confined to any particular road anywhere in the county. You select your road, measure off two miles and have it entered in contest book at the office of the County Engineer so we will not give your road to some one else. You can work a day once in a while when it is too wet to work on the farm and this is the proper time to use the drag. Remember that it does not get too muddy to use the split log drag.

PIKE COUNTY NEWS

All the Interesting Happenings in Our Big Neighboring County.

APPLICANTS EXAMINED.

What is said to be the most difficult examination held for teachers in Pike-co., for many years was held at the public school building here last week. Many applicants absolutely failed, and many others who usually rank high fell far short of their expected average.

Miss Lenna England, a Pikeville girl, secured a first-class certificate, and Rudolph Bentley, a young man of our city, secured a second. He fell slightly short on mathematics, and if he had scored just a little higher on this branch, he would have secured a first.

MRS. TAYLOR'S TRIAL SET FOR TO-DAY.

The trial of Mrs. Maude Taylor, of Millard, Ky., for the alleged murder of Cleveland Huffman, after a continuation of one week, will begin before Judge J. F. Butler in the Circuit Court here to-day. The trial was to have been started last Friday, but on account of the fact that the two attorneys for the defense, J. M. York and Roscoe Vanover, were compelled to be present at the U. S. Court at Catlettsburg, on that day, it was continued by agreement until to-day.

Mrs. Taylor, who is the daughter of Epp Justice, a wealthy farmer of the Levisa Fork, and is also the sister of J. F. Justice, one of Eastern Kentucky's leading merchants at Jenkins, is accused of having shot and killed Cleveland Huffman while he and his wife and her two sisters were passing the Taylor home on foot last March. Mrs. Taylor claims that insulting language and threats were the causes of the deed.

DR. McCLELLAND'S LAST SERMON AT PIKEVILLE.

To a crowded house, Rev. M. D. McClelland, for eight years pastor of the First Presbyterian church, here delivered his farewell address last Sunday morning. A beautiful summer morning favored the occasion, and the discourse was clothed with the simple dignity that has always been this great man's characteristic, but it bore with it the evidences of great mental effort; and his confession of faith, embracing a tribute to the Bible of marked beauty and reverence, was the crowning achievement of a long and useful career.

At the close of the sermon he declared his pulpit vacant by authority rested in him by Presbytery for that purpose, and stated that J. P. Whitehead, president of the college will have all future services of the church in charge until the pulpit shall have been filled again.

Dr. and Mrs. McClelland will go to Jenkins after June 1st to assume charge of the new work just beginning there.

MESSER TO PEN.

Z. H. Messer was convicted of forgery last Friday before the Circuit Court here and sentenced to serve from two to ten years in the state penitentiary. It was charged against him that he fraudulently procured from the Pikeville National Bank the sum of $90 on deposit in the name of J. W. Thompson, who came to Pikeville with Messer from Morehead last fall.

COLLEGE TERM CLOSES.

Pikeville college closes its doors this week at the end of the winter and spring terms and the commencement exercises were held on Tuesday and Thursday evening. Rev. J. P. Whitehead, president of the college, delivered the baccalaureate sermon for the college year in the Presbyterian church last Sunday evening, at which time all the churches of Pikeville united with them in the monthly union service.

On Tuesday evening a very large crowd of people gathered into the college chapel at 8 o'clock to hear the students of Miss Tackaberry's music class in their graduation recital. These were, Misses Kathryn Mays, vocalist; May Elliott and Norma Kirk, (the latter of Inez, Ky.) instrumentalists. They were assisted by Miss Tackaberry and Miss Flora Fannin. Two pianos were used, and in three out of the eleven numbers all four pianists were playing at one time.

The first number of the program, Hays' Comrades in Arms, was one of these; and as the grand martial strains from the two pianos began to fill the chapel, like the water of the ocean rolling and tumbling over the rocks, the audience listened with breathless interest to catch the magnificent strains as one succeeded the other. Both Miss Elliott and Miss Kirk displayed excellent technique in the Rondo Capriccioso and the Chopin Ballade, which they played from memory, and the beauty of Miss Mays' voice were fully brought out in the interpretation of the three numbers from Gounod and Verdi.

To Miss Tackaberry is due great and lasting praise and commendation for the excellent work she has accomplished in her capacity as a music teacher at Pikeville college, and a shower of compliments was unloaded upon her and her class immediately after the performance and she was told in the most glowing terms of the appreciation of the audience for her energetic efforts.

Miss Tackaberry leaves Saturday morning for her home at Lebanon, Ohio, where she will spend the vacation, and she will return to Pikeville again to resume charge of her work at the opening of the college in September.

The commencement exercises of the college were held at the Presbyterian church Thursday evening, May 29, at which time the graduates of the literary class, Misses May Elliott and Myrtle Campbell, Messrs. Chas. W. Bowles, Francis D. McClelland, and John A. Sowards delivered themselves of their graduation sentiments.

Upon this occasion also some beautiful music was heard, and Rev. Hugh Leith, of Covington, Ky., was present and delivered a short address. Toward the close of the program President J. P. Whitehead presented diplomas and prizes to graduates both of the literary and music departments. It was also a grand literary success.

MUSIC STORE.

Pikeville can boast of an up-to-date music store. The Baldwin pianos and organs are carried exclusively in stock. All kinds of musical instruments, cash or easy terms and prices that please. We save the purchaser at least 25 per cent and sell him a piano that will give satisfaction for a life time. Player pianos that are all but human. Drg and Mrs. A. S. Reese are attending the annual session of the Kentucky Dental Association held at Lexington this week.

Attorney R. L. Miller went to Cincinnati on professional business last Monday morning.

H. R. Calloway, manager of the Royal theatre returned one day last week from a business visit to Huntington.

Miss Verna Childress, of Henry Clay, was the guest of friends at this place Monday.

R. M. Salyer, of Harlan, Ky., and a leading business man of that thriving Kentucky town, spent several days of this week at Pikeville.

Prof. John G. McCobb, of Pikeville college, will leave Saturday for his home at Pittsburg, where he will spend the vacation. It is not known if he will return to resume charge of his classes this fall.

Mrs. T. J. Rigg and daughter left last Saturday morning for Ashland, where they will be the guests of friends for several days.

H. T. Williamson, of Williamson, W. Va., was a business caller here last week.

Rev. J. A. Lewis, pastor of the First Methodist church, went to the Bluehead Notch in the Cumberland mountains last Saturday to carry provisions to the home of Hunt Hal, who with his four sons are now in the Catlettsburg jail awaiting trial as being accessories to the murder of revenue officers Stone and Ramey. Dr. Lewis states that the women folks left at home are almost destitute, and his mission to bring something to eat to them was a most welcome one. While there he visited the scene of the shooting, and told of seeing the abandoned worm hanging in a nearby tree. This was a hazardous trip, but he made it in two days in safety.

Alex Matney, his son Dewey and brother Harve, with Jas. Webb, all of Lick creek, spent last Sunday at Pikeville.

P. K. Boothe and John Buckingham, both of Paintsville, were in Pikeville last Saturday.

Attorneys Roscoe Vanover, J. M. York, A. E. Auxier and J. J. Moore, are all attending the present session of the Federal Court at Catlettsburg.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS.

The County Judge will receive bids at his office, Louisa, Ky., till noon June 14, 1913, for the erection of an iron bridge across Catt creek near its mouth. Bridge to consist of two spans of riveted trusses of 85 ft. and 41 ft. spans and one beam span of 22.4 ft. Also two concrete piers to be built. Bids will be received for the concrete and foundation work separately from the bridge, also as a whole.
